an absolute duty to render it service. But this is the stuff of Soviet communism or Italian fascism. What a tragedy to see this brilliant mind put to work threatening human liberty.

Et tu Smithsonian?

Many Americans belong to the Smithsonian Institution, which is charged with collecting artifacts that reflect the spirit of American history. But now homosexuals are being asked to contribute memorabilia of their struggle for "civil rights." The Smithsonian is planning an exhibit to advance the gay political agenda, which is uniformly statist.

Bennett as Republican Czar

Ex-drug czar and super-statist neo-conservative William Bennett is the new chairman of the Republican National Committee.

Bush and Sununu see him as a way of placating conservatives upset by Bush's betrayal on taxes. For some reason, Bennett is beloved in the conservative movement, despite his rotten tenures at the National Endowment for the Humanities and the Department of Education. At both places he expanded government power over areas that are none of government's business.

Not So Stealth

The mega-expensive stealth fighter-bombers that missed their targets in Panama, and which the government covered up, aren't so stealth either. A French newsmagazine reports that the Saudi radar can "see" the American stealth planes that are stationed there for the war against Iraq, although they are supposedly invisible to radar.

The stealth planes can get closer (10.5 miles) than a regular aircraft before being detected, but not so close that they could avoid being shot down by an alert ack-ack crew.

"Dr." King

So now even the establishment press admits that Martin Luther King plagiarized his PhD dissertation, his academic articles, his speeches, and his sermons.

He was also a comsymp, if not an actual party member, and the man who replaced the evil of forced segregation with the evil of forced integration.

King, the FBI files show, was not only a world-class adulterer, he also seduced underage girls and boys. The Rev. Ralph David Abernathy revealed before his death that King had made a pass at him many years before.

And we are supposed to honor this "Christian minister" and lying socialist satyr with a holiday that puts him on a par with George Washington?

Congratulations to Arizona! Who could doubt that the result would be exactly the same if the other 49 states could also vote on a holiday for this affirmative-action saint?

Executive Orders

President Bush recently signed three unconstitutional executive orders. One certified that the UN was a great organization, and that the feds should send hundreds of millions of dollars to it. And the other two declared that there was an American national emergency, and he had to rush $117 million worth of military hardware taken from our own stockpiles to Israel.

Our Public Schools

The New York City public schools, which employ--according to U.S. News & World Report--more educational bureaucrats than all of Western Europe!, have a new program. It's not to teach reading, writing, or math, which this government monopoly has failed so miserably at. It's to distribute condoms to the students! But we shouldn't worry, say the bureaucrats. They are exempting elementary schools, and concentrating on high schools and junior highs.

Government-Promoted Promiscuity

All during the 1980s, sexual activity among teenage girls increased, says the liberal Guttmacher Institute. They purported to be surprised, but the kinds of programs they promote--as illustrated by the condom item above--can have no other effect. Kids growing up in today's hyper-sexual atmosphere believe the safe sex propoganda that condoms prevent AIDS. The only safe sex, medically and morally, is that between husband and wife.

Happy Holidays!

My wife Carol, and our children and grandchildren, join me in wishing you and your family a wonderful Christmas and a Happy New Year. May we start to confound the plans of the Trilateralists and other big-government types, making America freer and thus truer to her own heritage, in 1991.
